The vision of Notre Dame Catholic Church is to glorify God by being a faithful, inclusive community who, in the name of Jesus Christ, enables all to grow in their relationship with God and with one another through witness, worship and service.
God Answers Our Prayers!

Before I converted to the Catholic Church, I had not yet heard that if a cardinal flies near you or your house, or lands in a tree or bush near you or your house, it’s a sign that God is saying something to you. It can mean that God is going to answer your prayer, or that something you’re considering is the right thing to do.

I think very often that when we talk about God “answering” our prayers, what we’re actually saying is that we want or hope that God will give us the thing we asked for, or make happen something we want to happen. After all, God says specifically in Holy Scripture, in Matthew chapter 7, “Seek and you shall find, knock and the door will be opened, ask, and you shall receive.”

Don’t we all want to find? Don’t we all want that door to open for us? Don’t we all want to receive? God has pretty much commanded us to ask Him for things. But is there anyone among us who has asked but not received? Or knocked and the door still seems forever locked from inside? How many of us are constantly seeking, but never seem to find? Is there a disconnect here?

Well, for one thing, there is something missing from Jesus’ command that we seek, knock and ask. He doesn’t say when we shall receive or find or when that door will open. It would be different if He had said, “Seek and you shall find immediately”. Or, “Ask, and you shall receive by no later than tomorrow morning.”

We have to keep in mind that God has an advantage over us in that it’s very likely that He can see the outcome of things before we can or before it even occurs to us. Suppose a young man asks God for a new car. God can see that if He were to make that happen right away, at this particular moment, the young man would be involved in an accident. So God waits until the time is right.

Or suppose that the thing you ask for will only end up causing you to drift away from the faith, or cause you to quit coming to Mass. God will not grant a request that, in our ignorance or short-sightedness will only cause us to be separated from Him!

Because ultimately, every prayer to God, at its core, is an appeal to God to make our lives all right. What we each seek, ask for, and knock to have opened to us, are lasting peace and security, which can only be found in God. All other peace and security we may find in things, or jobs, or relationships is temporary at best or unsatisfying after the passing of time. This is not to say that there are no good things in life—there, of course. And often we pray to God not for ourselves but for our loved ones, or even for strangers.

And in those cases also, God rarely grants the requests immediately or sometimes not at all. We all must face the fact that sometimes, God’s answer to a prayer is No. Again, the problem is not that the Lord promised us that if we seek, knock or ask we will receive but then He denies us. Sometimes, we receive, or find, or a door opens up for us, in God’s timing, and it is the very thing we needed, only we didn’t recognize it at first.

God always answers our prayers, and we will find and receive all good things from Him.

¡Dios contesta nuestras oraciones!

Antes de convertirme a la Iglesia Católica, no había escuchado que si un cardenal volaba cerca de ti o tu casa, o si aterrizaba en un árbol o arbusto cerca de ti o tu casa, es una señal de que Dios te está diciendo algo. Puede significar que Dios responderá a tu oración, o que algo que estás considerando es lo correcto.

Pienso muy a menudo, que cuando hablamos de las “respuestas” de Dios a nuestras oraciones, lo que realmente estamos diciendo es que deseamos o esperamos que Dios nos dé lo que pedimos o que suceda algo que queremos que pase. Después de todo, Dios dice específicamente en la Sagrada Escritura, en el capítulo 7 de San Mateo, “Pidan y se les dará; busquen y hallarán; llamen y se les abrirá la puerta”.

¿No todos queremos encontrar? ¿No queremos que la puerta se nos abra? ¿No queremos recibir? Dios casi nos ha ordenado que le pidamos. Pero ¿hay alguien entre nosotros que ha pedido pero no ha recibido? ¿O tocó y la puerta sigue pareciendo cerrada para siempre desde adentro? ¿Cuántos de nosotros buscamos constantemente, pero parece que nunca encontramos? ¿Hay una desconexión aquí?

Bueno, por un lado, falta algo en el mandato de Jesús que pidamos, busquemos y llamemos. Él no dice cuándo recibiremos o encontraremos ni cuándo se nos abrirá la puerta. Sería diferente si Él hubiera dicho: "Busca y encontrarás inmediatamente". O bien, "Pide, y lo recibirás a más tardar la mañana siguiente".

Debemos tener en cuenta que Dios tiene una ventaja sobre nosotros, porque es muy probable que pueda ver el resultado de las cosas antes de que nos ocurran. Supongamos que un joven le pide a Dios un auto nuevo. Dios puede ver que si Él hiciera que eso suceda de inmediato, en ese momento en particular, el joven estaría involucrado en un accidente. Así que Dios espera hasta que llegue el momento.

O supongamos que lo que pides solo hará que te alejes de la fe, o que dejes de asistir a Misa. ¡Dios no concederá una petición que, en nuestra ignorancia o falta de visión, solo haga que nos separe de Él!

Porque en última instancia, cada oración a Dios, en su esencia, es un llamado a Dios para que nos ayude. Lo que cada uno pedimos, buscamos y llamamos es para lo que debemos estar abiertos, la paz y seguridad que solo se pueden encontrar en Dios. Toda otra paz y seguridad que podamos encontrar en cosas, trabajos o relaciones son temporales en el mejor de los casos, o insatisfactorias después del paso del tiempo. Esto no quiere decir que no haya cosas buenas en la vida, por supuesto. Y a menudo oramos a Dios no por nosotros mismos, sino por nuestros seres queridos, o incluso por extraños.

Y también en esos casos, Dios rara vez concede las solicitudes de forma inmediata o, a veces, en absoluto. Todos debemos enfrentar el hecho de que, a veces, la respuesta de Dios a una oración es No. Una vez más, el problema no es que el Señor nos prometió que si pedimos, buscamos o tocamos lo recibiremos, pero Él nos lo niega si eso pone en peligro la salvación de nuestra alma. Algunas veces, recibimos, o encontramos, o una puerta se nos abre, en el tiempo de Dios, y es lo que necesitábamos, solo que no lo reconocimos al principio.

Dios siempre responde a nuestras oraciones, y encontraremos y recibiremos todas las cosas buenas que vienen de Él.

¡Bendiciones!
En Jesus,
Padre David

PENTECOST CELEBRATION

The Welcoming Committee invites us to come together for a simple lunch in the Social Center after the 11:00 Mass on Sunday, June 9th, to celebrate the Birthday of the Church...PENTECOST...celebrate the gift of our faith in the ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC, APOSTOLIC Church.

On the weekend of June 1st and June 2nd all parishes in our Archdiocese will be conducting a second collection for the Priest Pension Fund. This fund supports the pension for priests who have reached retirement age. This year there will be 66 priests receiving pensions. After faithfully serving many years in the Lord’s vineyard, the Priest Pension Plan ensures that our semi and fully retired priests may have a dignified retirement by being able to pay for the many expenses encountered in retirement. As the average age of priests continues to rise and priests, along with the general population, live longer lives, there is a greater need than ever to ensure the viability and strength of our pension. Please be generous in making a donation on the weekend on June 1st and June 2nd to support our Archdiocesan Priest Pension Plan.

CELEBRACIÓN DE PENTECOSTÉS

El comité de bienvenida nos invita a que nos reunamos para un sencillo almuerzo en el centro social después de la misa de 11, el 9 de junio, para celebrar el cumpleaños de la iglesia...PENTECOSTÉS...celebremos el regalo de nuestra fe en UNA, SANTA, CATÓLICA, APOSTÓLICA Iglesia.

BooksToBorrow
from the Notre Dame Parish Library are available in the narthex of the church, near the bell tower door. Deborah Harris tells us about a timely book available now.

In the book, The Holy Spirit and His Work in Souls by Rev. Edward Leen, C.S.Sp., M.A., D.D., the Holy Spirit is defined as the “divine artist who in creation is the sanctifier of the human soul”. The book is divided into thirteen chapters. The first eight chapters deal with the person of the Holy Spirit. The remaining chapters focus on His operations in the human soul. Here is the author’s summary of the chapters.

“The first and third chapters discuss the love of God as shown in the creation and in the mystery of the Incarnation. Chapter two studies the Holy Spirit as the subsistent love of God. Chapter four considers the purpose of the Holy Spirit in the great work of the Incarnation. The fifth chapter is devoted to considerations on life in general and of that particular life which the soul shares with God. Chapter six is a study of the Holy Spirit as gift of God most high. Chapter seven discusses the friendship that the Creator’s love assumes toward His creatures. Chapter eight helps explain how the Holy Spirit takes up residence in a permanent manner in the souls of the just. Chapter nine tells of how the Holy Spirit pours forth to the soul, a certain divine quality by means of sanctifying grace. Chapter ten tells how the Christian shares in the nature of God, becoming a child of God, born of water and the Spirit. Chapter eleven describes the characteristics and privileges of the divine adoption as a child of God. Chapter twelve deals with the principles of supernatural growth while chapter thirteen discusses the fruits of the Holy Spirit and the Sermon on the Mount telling of the potential graces found in the Beatitudes.”

Every Catholic knows that at Baptism a mysterious form of life is infused in our soul. Our happiness in the next world and our perfection in this world depend on our participation in the divine life given to us by God our Father. We must grow in holiness and attain a deeper understanding of the personal characteristics and attributes of the Holy Spirit.

As the author says, “only when a man is faithful to grace and decides to place the cross in the center of his soul, denying himself for the love of God, detaching himself in a real way from all selfishness and false human security, only then – when a man lives by faith in a real way – will he receive the fullness of the great fire, the great light of the Holy Spirit, the great comfort of the Holy Spirit”.

Pentecost will soon arrive; reading this book will empower you to be ready (as the apostles waited in the upper room) for the Holy Spirit to grow and strengthen you to go forth and evangelize the good news to the ends of the world.
