TEXT: Stories of God’s Love

The Faith of a Kindergartner: Kindergarten is a wonderful time to celebrate simple rituals and the traditions of the Church. It is a time to introduce children to a brimming faith vocabulary and provide a readiness for future catechesis in the faith of the Catholic Church. You can expect your kindergartner to:

- Have a natural sense of wonder and awe that fosters sensitivity to the sacred
- Imagine God as a human person
- Experience God’s love through parents or guardians and other family members
- Have a natural tendency for prayer and enjoy ceremony and ritual
- Be comfortable with both formal and spontaneous prayer
- Interpret Bible stories and other stories literally, be unable to derive the symbolic meaning

This calendar of lessons is being provided to you so you will know what will be discussed each week. It will also allow you to complete lessons at home if your son or daughter is absent.
