Dear Parishioners,

Today is the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time. We assemble together to observe the Lord's Day as we celebrate the Eucharist in which Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection are recalled. The Scriptures for this day speak of the seed which the Lord sows upon the earth. This seed is the word of God. In the Gospel Acclamation we sing, "The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower. All who come to him will have life forever." The parable of the sower is the centerpiece for today's Scriptures which addresses the receptivity of the seed that is God's word.

The first part of the Holy Mass is called, the Liturgy of the Word. In this part the Sacred Scriptures are proclaimed, sung, prayed and explained. In the Liturgy of the Word God speaks to us and invites us into a dialogue with Him through prayer. God's word rouses the heart providing us with encouragement, consolation, motivation, reflection and more.

In addition to the liturgy we are invited to spend some time each day reading and pondering the Scriptures at home. One's spiritual life is strengthened by delving into the Bible daily. Using Bible passages to introduce personal prayer is an ancient practice from which piety flourishes. Reading a short portion of the Bible each night before or following supper helps keep the family focused and firm in faith and love.

Wonderful benefits are to be found when the Sacred Scriptures are studied and prayed in community. Bible studies are opportunities where a group of people are able to share how the Scriptures have impacted their lives. Such gatherings provide just the right direction one should follow as is revealed in the word spoken by God.

The parishioners of both Sacred Heart of Jesus Church and Saint Cecilia Church come together for the various opportunities we have here in Rockaway to share in the study of the Scriptures. Although we do not meet during these summer days, we have a Bible Study group which meets on Monday evenings, another which meets on Tuesday mornings and a Mommy's group which meets on Thursday mornings. The gatherings take place at Saint Cecilia's and will resume following Labor Day. I hope that you will take advantage of these opportunities to join us in receiving God's word and allowing it to grow within.

REMEMBER: There is no vacation from the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist!

God bless you!

Father Zig
