Question of the Week
16th Sunday – Mark 6:30-34

Key Passage:
The apostles gathered with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile”… They disembarked and saw a vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

Question for adults:
How do you balance the call to discipleship with everyday life?

Question for children:
When have you put your friends needs before your own?

Pregunta de la Semana
16° Domingo – Marcus 6:30-34

Pasaje Crucial:
Los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado. Entonces Él les dijo: “Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco”…Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor.

Pregunta para los adultos:
¿Cómo se equilibra la llamada al discipulado con la vida cotidiana?

Pregunta para los niños:
¿Cuándo has puesto las necesidades de tus amigos antes que tus tareas?

We lift up to the Lord all who enter the eternal peace of Christ. We pray too, for all the sick, especially Father Ed Doyle & Marge Swearengen, may the gift of the peace of Christ fill their hearts and minds, and may almighty God always provide their every need. We pray for those who struggle with grief or addictions and those who labor to provide our well being and freedom especially first responders and military.

From Deacon John...

Today, we read of the return of those sent to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When the Twelve return, Jesus invites them to come away and rest. But the crowds will not give them peace. They have shared in ministry, now they share in popularity. Mark reports that the disciples don’t even have time to eat. The Twelve are referred to as “apostles”, a word meaning “one who is sent.” Jesus chose those apostles from among his then current disciples. We who are Jesus’ disciples today are also sent to share the Gospel with others. At times, our commitment to serve may leave us feeling tired and overwhelmed. Jesus affirms the importance of rest and renewal, always inviting us to come away and spend time alone with him.
New Madagascar Cardinal focuses on peace and the Gospel
By Editor, Catholic News Service, July 19, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)
The self-effacing new Cardinal of Madagascar has said his appointment as Cardinal came to him as a total surprise. Then came several other phone calls, which prompted him to call the Apostolic Nuncio to Madagascar to seek clarification. Eventually, when the Nuncio got back to him, he confirmed the new appointment from the Holy Father. The night of the appointment was a sleepless one for Cardinal Tsarahazana. Looking back, he says the support of the people coupled with their joy comforted him. “And here I am for the Consistory!”

The Archbishop of Toamasina, Désiré Tsarahazana, one of the Cardinals created by Pope Francis on Thursday, says he is cognizant of the responsibility that is now his own in Madagascar.

“The Archbishop of Toamasina, Désiré Tsarahazana, one of the Cardinals created by Pope Francis on Thursday, says he is cognizant of the responsibility that is now his own in Madagascar.

“I had just made my pastoral visit where I administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to 165 people. I was ready to take a good nap because I was tired. Someone called me from the (capital city) Antananarivo, informing and congratulating me on my new appointment as Cardinal,” he says.

His first reaction was that perhaps there was some misunderstanding. parties, congratulated him but also expressed to him their concern for the future of the country. It then dawned on him that his new appointment carries with it, a responsibility that goes beyond the confines of the Catholic Church.

“I feel a mission has been thrust upon me to comfort the people of Madagascar so that they have a little more hope in the future. People formed and congratulating me on my new appointment as Cardinal, says he is cognizant of the responsibility that there was some misunderstanding. says.
