This article is being repeated from last week's bulletin, which arrived after the 8:00 AM Sunday Mass.

INNER PEACE: One thing that has impressed and frustrated me about the saints is their ability to remain in relative peace in the face of adversity, or even death. Their connection to God was of such a nature that, despite having to deal with criticisms, loneliness, open hostility, and persecution, they were able to do so with great patience, mercy and compassion. At the same time, this same relationship with the Divine propelled them to act in the very situation that created their external difficulties. Especially when I was younger, I enjoyed their model of Christian faith, but found it a great challenge to be as patient and kind as them when similarly confronted with unkind or angry emotions and words and personal attacks, or challenges to my deeply held convictions and beliefs.

Now that I am a few years older, I look to them as great teachers of how to live with adversity. The words of St. Teresa, for example, have proven very useful whenever I have felt frustrated or angry with a situation:

"Let nothing disturb you. Let nothing frighten you. Everything passes, but God never changes.
Patience obtains all.
Whoever has God will lack for nothing.
God alone suffices."

These words come from a woman whose spiritual experiences and teachings were constantly doubted. She was challenged by some members of the Spanish Inquisition, who deemed her prayer life as demonic. She faced hot opposition to her reform of the Carmelite order from both the friars and the nuns. The townspeople in certain areas protested her foundation of a monastery. Within the reform, she faced jealousies, power grabs, and the impact of members with serious mental health issues. Despite, all this, she was able to maintain an interior peace that enabled her to realize her personal call by God to bring about change.

Her life, therefore, offers us some important lessons about how to deal with similar situations. Whether because of family relationships, politics, social justice issues, work or whatever situation that causes us stress, the teachings of Teresa can help us to deal with challenges with greater grace and with inner peace and strength. The following are some lessons that I have drawn from her life and teachings.

PRAY: Teresa changed the way contemplative people prayed by recognizing that God is not an idea to be thought of, but One to be encountered and experienced in love. For her, prayer is first and foremost allowing God to love us. So allow yourself some quiet time for God to love you. This means turning off the cell phone, the computer, the television, and having a moment away from the spouse and kids to be alone with yourself and God. In this stillness allow God to take care of you. Sit in a comfortable and quiet spot. Begin with a passage from the Bible to help your mind focus on prayer, and then close your eyes and let your mind and soul ponder their meaning. A good one to start with is the following: "No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

—Romans 8:37-39

If it helps you to maintain your focus you may light a candle, play some quiet instrumental music in the background, and have a favorite image of Christ or a saint nearby. St. Teresa held that it is good to have an image of Christ to help us to remember that we are loved.

TAKE A BREAK: Sometimes, we can feel anxious or overwhelmed by everything going on around us, even if we feel passionate about what we do. None of us, however, has the ability to sustain challenging circumstances for a long time. Being the primary caregiver of a close relative, for example, demands so much energy and focus; yet even though we love them, we cannot maintain such a level of care and attention without cracking. It is necessary, therefore, to sometimes walk away for a while. In addition to prayer, Teresa met with friends, held small celebrations in the monastery, and dedicated herself to writing. These changes of routine helped her to fulfill God's will with vigor. We, too, need to turn off our electronic devices and go for a walk. Or spend a couple of hours with good friends, or do a hobby.

KNOW YOUR PRIORITIES: One of the important things that Teresa learned was to let go of what was unimportant and unessential, and to allow God to do His work in her. This required her to constantly look at her life with humility, examining it in the light of God's will, and to detach herself from things that prevented her from living freely in God, including her own ego. God invites us to do the same, not only with the stuff happening in our lives, but also with what we hold dear in our hearts.

When we get caught up in tense discussions, for example, we should ask ourselves, “Is what I am defending according to Christ and his saving mission for the whole world?” “Is it worth fighting for?” “Is it worth dying for?”

I pray that as we follow the examples of Teresa and all the saints, we may continue to simplify our lives and make them a little easier by leaning on God’s unconditional and abounding love.

PARKING LOT, i.e.,

PLEASE DO THE RIGHT THING: Two weeks ago, someone in our parish parked in the parking lot during the day. When they returned to their car, they discovered that their car had been hit, yet the offender left no information. Please remember that if you hit a parked car, or are involved in any other type of accident involving your vehicle, you are required by law to remain at the scene and to exchange information, including your name, address, license plate number, and insurance information. Besides, it is the decent thing to do.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In brushing up for “Catholic Jeopardy,” it might help to know that there is only one feast on the calendar for a thing, rather than a person or mystery. It’s for a chair: Saint Peter’s chair in fact

After the Resurrection, there can be no doubt that the disciples reserved a special place for Simon Peter in the upper room. Later, Peter became the bishop of Antioch in today’s Syria, the place where we were first called “Christians.” From there, he went to Rome, the center of the Empire, where it is said that Peter sat in a chair in the house of Priscilla and Aquila to instruct his flock. Jesus, in entrusting the keys of the Kingdom to Peter and his successors, entrusted his compassion and mercy to them, and charged them with pointing to the Kingdom of God. Compassion and mercy are to resonate through their teaching.

Since the ancient sign of a teacher is the chair (“disciple” literally means one who sits at the feet of a teacher), Peter’s chair has long been treasured. Today there is a symbolic shrine of Peter’s chair above the main altar of St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. This monument is the last work of Bernini, a huge bronze throne supported by four doctors of the Church: Augustine and Ambrose from the Western Church, and Chrysostom and Athanasius from the East. High above it is the alabaster window of the descent of the Holy Spirit.
