BEATITUDES FOR FATHER'S DAY

Blessed are the fathers who love God, for their children shall not be ignorant of their Creator and His plans concerning them.

Blessed are the fathers who love the Word of God, for their children shall know of the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Blessed are the fathers who love the house of God, for their children shall enter there and sit with them in the presence of God.

Blessed are the fathers who love to pray, for their children shall feel the power of prayer and many shall find salvation.

Blessed are the fathers who love to give to the cause of Christ, for their children shall become tithers and supporters of the Kingdom of God.

Blessed are the fathers who love a family altar, for they shall have their reward in the world to come.

Blessed are the fathers who love to speak kind words to their neighbors' children, for thereby they win other boys and girls besides their own to Jesus Christ.

Blessed are the fathers who love to be companions to their children, for they shall be called understanding fathers.

A FATHER'S PRAYER

O God, Giver of Life and Father of us all, help me to be the kind of father to my children that You are to me.

May I love them unconditionally, forgive them when they fail, counsel them when they doubt, lift them up when they fall, guide them in the darkness and walk beside them in the light.

Show me, Loving Father, how to teach them, to play with them, to share with them and to pray with them.

Thank you for my children, thank you for my role as a father. Amen.

"I GOT THE MAN TOGETHER"

One rainy Saturday afternoon, a father took on the task of keeping his children entertained. To keep his ten-year-old son busy, he tore a full-page map of the world out of a magazine, cut it into small pieces, and told him to reassemble it as a jigsaw puzzle. To the Father's amazement, the boy presented him with the completed puzzle in just a few minutes. "How did you do it son?", he asked. "It was easy," the boy replied. "At first, when I tried to fit together all those little lines and dots and small print on the map, it looked like an impossible job. But then I saw part of a man's face on the back of one of the pieces. So I turned the pieces over, and when I got the man together, the world took care of itself."

Family Connection

Worries and concerns are part of human life. Jesus teaches us, however, that we ought not to let worries and concerns consume us. Jesus teaches us that our faith ought to lead us to trust in God's protection and love, no matter how strong the whirlwind going on around us. Like the disciples, we can bring our worries and concerns to Jesus in prayer. Jesus will hear our cries for help. He knows that our faith can be fragile and he will act so that our trust in God will be strengthened. As you gather as a family, invite each family member to talk about something that might be worrying them. Talk about how important it is to share worries and concerns with other people. When we do this, we learn to see our worries from a different perspective. Read today's Gospel, Mark 4:35-41. Ask your family questions such as these: Why were the disciples worried about the storm? Why wasn't Jesus worried about the storm? When we bring our worries to Jesus in prayer, Jesus can help us see things from God's perspective. Invite family members to name again a worry or concern and pray together that Jesus will help us have faith in God's love and protection. Conclude in prayer together by praying the Lord's Prayer.
