From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Two wonderful people on our parish staff will be moving out of state. Karen Beargie, our Pastoral Minister and her husband, Chuck will be moving to St. Louis, Missouri. Christopher Toth, our 4 pm organist will be moving to Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

We are grateful to Karen and Chuck for being active registered parishioners of our St. John Nepomucene Parish Community. Both played with our contemporary music ministry at many of our 11 am Masses. Chuck was also a member of our Parish Finance Council.

Karen assisted with RCIA, Pre-Baptism Instruction, Scripture Sharing, Days of Adult Education and Days of Recollection. Karen was on our Pastoral Council, Liturgy Commission and Stewardship Commission. She spent five years in our Catholic Elementary Grade School and taught computer and music. The last five years, she has served us as a Pastoral Minister. Karen did innovative things to educate and bring people together such as the Friday Night at the Movies.

A Mass of Thanksgiving and Farewell will be celebrated for her on Sunday, July 26th at 11 am. A reception will follow in the hall.

Christopher Toth has been playing the organ and singing at our 4 pm Mass for twelve years. He played the organ and sang at many of our funerals and weddings. He is a very talented and gifted musician. His last Mass with us will be Saturday, June 27th at 4 pm.

It has been a great joy and a great blessing to know and work with Karen and Chuck Beargie and Chris Toth. They helped us to grow closer to Christ and one another in many wonderful ways.

We will miss them. They will always have a special place in our hearts.

We pray that God will bless them in their future endeavors.

Gratefully in Christ,
Father Robert Jasany

A Stewardship Moment

Today’s Gospel gives St. Mark’s account of Jesus gathering his disciples for a last supper, revealing to them a new covenant established through his own sacrificial blood. Every time we participate in the Eucharist, we make a pledge to renew and deepen our participation in Christ’s covenant in practical ways. For the steward, that means making daily, personal sacrifices to strengthen this covenant relationship such as deepening our relationship with the Lord in prayer, supporting our parish, and giving comfort to the poor. Now is a good time to reflect on what we can do to strengthen our covenant with the Lord and our community in practical ways.

KAREN'S KORNER

Did you know that I want to continue the conversation I started last week? God is love! What does that mean? How do we know we are loved and how do we know that we love God? It is easy to SAY we love God, and it is easy to say we know we are loved by God.

In his first letter, St. John tells us that the call to charity is of greatest importance in loving God. He goes so far as to say that if we love on another, God remains in us and His love is brought to perfection. In fact, the whole first letter of John is a short homily on love! The author tells us that God's love has been shown in the death of Jesus and that this is the basis for the command to love others. St. Teresa of Avila makes a similar point in "Interior Castle" when she writes, "Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours." But she also gives a warning, "The devil frequently fills our thoughts with great schemes, so that instead of putting our hands to what work we can do to serve our Lord, we may rest satisfied with wishing to perform impossibilities." Her whole point here is that it is easy to say we love God because there is really no way in that relationship of knowing just how much we love Him! We can't see God, so how do we know we are, in fact, loving God?

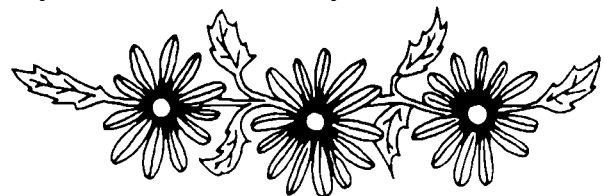

Teresa says that the answer is found in how we love our neighbor. So, the only way the love of God will be brought to perfection in us, is when we are bringing that love to everyone around us! This is something I am very conscious of most of the time. (I'm still human, you know!) But how are we treating other parishioners, to begin with? Are we ignoring them? Ignoring their needs? Doing only what we think is best, no matter how it hurts others? How are we treating the people we meet every day, whether we know them or not? How do we feel about people in the news? There is so much more to loving God, than just saying "I love God." Every single day, I strive to treat every single person around me with the dignity and respect that they deserve because they are Children of God. I may not like the actions of people, but that is not the same as not loving someone. The value of our love for God is how we treat others, particularly the poor and oppressed. Any time we start to believe that we know the best thing for other people, we are not being loving. Every time we see only the black and white of things, we are not being loving. Any time we put our own wishes and needs above others for "the good of the Church" we are not being loving. Love is the key to the gospel. After all, God loved us enough in our sin, to send us His only Son to die a horrific death, in order to raise Him up and give us the supreme example of love.

Keep your eyes and ears open and I will see you soon!

Karen

Note: My husband and I will be moving to St. Louis, Missouri at the end of July. His company has transferred him there. My last day at SJN will be July 29, 2015.
