Deuteronomy 26: 4-10

Moses tells his people, "My father was a wandering Aramean, who went down to Egypt with a small household and lived there as an alien."

The Egyptians mistreated his family, but they grew into a great nation with the help of God. How do we welcome the stranger? Do we see Jesus in the face of someone very different from us?

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT “Therefore, I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given me.” Deuteronomy 26:10

The origins of the theology of stewardship are found in this passage from the Old Testament. Stewards return the first fruits of their labors to God, not the leftovers. This practice is a reminder to always place God first in our lives.

2019 BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION This weekend, we will take up the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection. Your donations help fund parish-based catechetical programs, support teacher and catechist professional development, encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and create diocesan structures, such as our own archdiocesan Office of Multicultural Ministry, that support ministry and evangelization in these diverse cultural communities. Please be generous.
