NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

I hope you are all enjoying the book we handed out last weekend. If you have not received a copy please contact us or you may find some in the back of church. As we celebrate this "Year of Mercy" called for by Pope Francis this book is a great companion.

Couple thanks you's I would like express. The "Gala of Giving" was a huge success! Thank you to all the people who donated, worked and gave.

The corn beef and cabbage dinner is always a great time. Thank you to all who worked and partook of this great event.

Catholic Man's Night was a very nice evening. Thank you to Holy Name of Mary for hosting it and Fr. Quinn for guest speaking.

As you know Mike Allen has left employment here at Corpus Christi Parish and St. John Bosco School. We would like to thank Mike for his years of service and wish him well in his new endeavors. Blessings, Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

Throwing stones seems to be a popular thing to do, at least for some in the presidential race. Today Jesus tells the Scribes and Pharisees; "Let the one among you who is without sin cast the first stone". What a powerful statement. The fact is, none of us is perfect and we have all done things we wish we wouldn't have. The good news is, and the woman in today's story knows this first hand, is that our God is extremely merciful! What comfort we can take in that. Let us imitate our Lord in the ways of mercy. "Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs". God Bless, Deacon Ray
