

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church - Map

Have you been thinking about joining us for a Tuesday meeting, but you're not sure where exactly we meet? Here's some info that will hopefully help.

The red heart on the map is by the covered circular drive of the Pius XII Catechetical Center (PCC). This is where you enter for our meetings. The PCC is the red brick building on the south side of the church, close to North Tarrant Pkwy. The outside door has to stay closed and locked for security reasons. If no one is standing there to let you in, you can push the white doorbell button or you can call/text Jill at 334-313-6246, and someone will come to open the door for you. The yellow flower on the map is where you enter the Parish Hall for the nursery. You come in through the glass doors, and the nursery is to the right. There is a white doorbell on this door as well.

I usually park by the Parish Hall, drop off my kids, and then walk over to the PCC. If you're new to the group and you have any questions, please let me know!
