THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

Jesus' command to feed the hungry is never more urgent for us than during the cold winter season that approaches. The Thanksgiving season adds to our need to be generous as we have been treated so generously by our God!

One way we at Sacred Heart fulfill that command and give as we have been given is through our annual Thanksgiving Food Drive. Last year, our parish purchased over $14,000 worth of non-perishable groceries for the East Central Community Center for distribution to the needy of southeast Spokane. That food fed families in need for much of the past year!

Let us continue this great tradition of Gospel generosity in this month of November by full participation in our Thanksgiving Food Drive! Just fill out one of the forms you will find in the church vestibule, letting us know what you'd like to donate and we'll take care of the rest!

Thanksgiving Mass @ Sacred Heart...

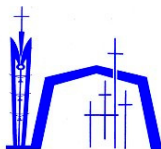

As last year, we will be celebrating our Thanksgiving Mass on Thanksgiving EVE, Wednesday, Nov 23rd, 7:00 pm. Bring the bread and wine you will be serving at home for a special blessing!

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

As you read this column, I am at play in Rome! Well, probably not exactly "at play," but certainly having a great experience in the Eternal City along with Father Miguel from Our Lady of Fatima Parish and thousands and thousands of others who have gathered here for two great celebrations.

The first, of course, is the elevation of Archbishop Cupich of Chicago (and need I say, formerly of Spokane!) by Pope Francis as a new Cardinal of the Church. And not just Archbishop Cupich, but sixteen others including Americans, Archbishop Tobin of Indianapolis and Bishop Kevin Farrell of Dallas. The celebration surrounding this "Consistory" will be one filled with great hope as a new class of bishops commit themselves to "shed their blood" for Christ (the meaning of their new red cassocks), advise the Pope, and serve as electors at the next Conclave, which, hopefully, will not be any time soon. It will be an honor to be there and represent the faithful of our parish in such a meaningful event.

The second is the closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy that Pope Francis has led during the previous twelve months. The Holy Door at St. Peter's and many others around the world will be closed and sealed until the next Holy Year and the Holy Year will come to an official end, but as Pope Francis is sure to remind us all, the mercy of God that has been at the heart of this year's celebrations, does not come to an end. Mercy, Holy Year or not, is always at the heart of who God is for us and with us. Hopefully, our celebrations of that gift of mercy during the past months, and especially our own parish mission in September, have helped us understand anew just how deep and wide is God's mercy, indeed, and inspired us to trust in it ever more deeply.

Between events, if all goes well, we'll have time for a true Roman cappuccino, a great bowl of pasta, or at least a pizza, and a cup of gelato (the best is in a little shop across from the Pantheon, if you ever get there!).

We'll also have a few days in Belgium, where I look forward to a sugary and thick Liege waffle, a light and fluffy croissant, a round chalice of Westmalle Triple Trappist out in the town square, and, of course, visiting with great friends after almost six years away. I'll be thinking of you and praying for you along the way!

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Kevin

While Father Kevin is Away...

Father McNeese will be celebrating the morning Mass weekdays from Nov. 15-22.
