Reflection on the Scriptures

"It is He Who is our Peace, and Who made the two of us one by breaking down the barrier of hostility that kept us apart." —Ephesians 2:14

Micah prophesied that the Messiah would not only be peaceful or make peace but that He would be Peace (Micah 5:4). Moreover, Jesus began the Sermon on the Mount, the quintessence of His preaching, by proclaiming: "Blest too the peacemakers; they shall be called sons of God" (Matthew 5:9). On the night before He died, Jesus announced that He would leave peace to His disciples in His last will and testament (John 14:27). Considering all this and more, St. Paul came to the conclusion that Jesus "is our Peace" (Ephesians 2:14), Who establishes peace (Ephesians 2:15) and announces "peace to you who were far off, and to those who were near" (Ephesians 2:17).

It is clear that Jesus is Peace. But is He your Peace? For this to be so, we must follow Jesus by making peace through the blood of the cross (Colossians 1:20). For Jesus to be our Peace, we must accept Jesus as our Peace by forgiving, loving, and reconciling with everyone, including our enemies. We make Jesus our Peace at the cross. Take up the cross of Peace, your Peace.
